

18th Annual Scholar-in-Residence Weekend

How We Decide How to Act Rabbi Professor David Golinkin

February 9-11, 2018

The Talmud and Jewish Law: An Overview of a 2,000 Year-Old Conversation

Friday 2/9 • Services at 7:30 PM • Talk at 8:30 PM • Oneg

A Sample Page of Talmud: Honor Your Parents

Saturday 2/10 • Services at 10:00 AM
• Lunch at 12:30 PM • Talk at 1:30 PM

The State of Judaism in the Jewish State

Saturday 2/10 • Wine & Cheese Reception at 6:30 PM
$18/person • No charge for SIR sponsors

A Sample Rabbinic Opinion: Should Jews be Environmentalists?

Sunday 2/11 • Brunch 10:30 AM
$10/person, $8/Men's Club member • No charge for SIR sponsors

Rabbi Golinkin is the President of The Schechter Institutes. Schechter, based in Jerusalem, provides pluralistic Jewish education for rabbis, teachers, artists, lay leaders, and children. Schechter trains more than 65,000 students annually.

Rabbi Golinkin served as the Dean of the Schechter Rabbinical Seminary and was the Chair of the Law Committee for the Conservative Movement in Israel for 20 years. He was ordained and earned a Ph.D. in Talmud from the Jewish Theological Seminary.